

Here we go!

Burgess and Belle Haven pools will be reopening for swimming starting tomorrow Thursday, June 11th.

7 PLEASE Requests:

- Please be prepared to engage with the pools in a completely different way than you ever have.
- Please find the positives and the protections that our staff are following with these new procedures.
- Please be patient with our staff as they are relearning how to engage in this new normal
- Please be patient with yourself if there are reservation or registration challenges. We will help, just reach out to us.
- Please be patient with our response time, we are trying our best with a skeleton staff who is rough and ready.
- Please stay informed as our operations will change as County guidelines change.
- Please relax and have a wonderful swim in a beautiful setting.

Thanks to our community for all the support during the 92 days of closure.

Welcome Back.
